8. Detail Description of the event:

Field study is an important aspect of formal education as it contributes towards the mental and intellectual development of students. Keeping this point in view, the students of Post Graduate classes of Assamese Department, Nalbari College, were taken to the Vaishnavite monastery of Bardowa on 28/02/2019.

Bardowa or Batadraba is a sacred pilgrimage of Assam. The great Assamese Vaishnavite guru Srimanta Sankardev established the monastery here in 1468. Situated at a distance of eighteen kilometers from Nagaon town, this monastery or satra holds special significance as it is associated with Srimanta Sankardev's childhood, youth and vocation. The monastery is surrounded by the sprawling campus of 286 bighas of land, and this is the place from where the Vishnavite leader started spreading the ek saran naam dharma, that is, the cult which pledges devotion to Lord Vishnu alone.

The big pond known as Akashi Ganga, the Kirtan ghar with Manikut or sanctum sanctorum, the Dol temple, etc., preserved inside the satra, along with the Sankardev Research Centre, carry the great legacy of the monastery. The small museum also preserves many precious articles like, the remnants of the main gate of Bardowa satra, the guru asana, the twin statues of Radha and Krishna, wooden sarai, and wooden bowls, basins, etc. It is expected that the visit to the monastery has given the students practical knowledge of the Vaishnavite monastic life introduced by sage Sankardev.
