8. Detail Description of the event: Field study is an inseparable part of modern education system. Field visit imparts first hand knowledge about culture, sculpture, art, architecture, etc. With that purpose in mind, the students of Post Graduate classes of Assamese Department, Nalbari College, were taken to Tezpur on 18-02-2020.

Tezpur is the head quarter of Sonitpur District and it is situated on the bank of the Brahmaputra. It is 175 kilometres away from Guwahati and the biggest city of the North Bank of the Brahmaputra. The old fortress Agnigarh, Mahabhairav temple, lotus pond, Chitrlekha park, etc., bear the great historical legacy of Tezpur.

Tezpur was a part of the Koch kingdom in the ninth century, but, afterwards, it went under the Ahom rule. The Ahoms played a significant role in building the city of Tezpur as we find it today. Tezpur was selected as the place of field study so that the students could gather information regarding the historical and political significance of the place.
