8. Detail Description of the event: Field studies are significant part of academic field. It helps students to develop their intellectual improvement along with mental stress. Keeping these objective in mind the P.G students of Assamese department, Nalbari college were taken to the Akashiganga waterfall and Mahamrityunjay Mandir located at Nagaon district on 25th March, 2021.

Akashiganga is a waterfall located about 50k.m south-east of Doboka-Dimapur road of Nagaon district. Several archaeological remains can be found in this place. According to the ancient myth Goddess Sati immolated herself in the sacred fire that was prepared for the Yagyas of her father who had shown disrespect to Mahadev. The grief stricken Mahadev had carried the burnt body of Sati and was on the verge of destroying the universe by dancing the Tandav. Lord Vishnu intervened and dismembered Sati's dead body with his Chakra into 108 pieces. One piece is believed to have fallen near in Akashiganga. Therefore, devotees take a dip in the water to be blessed by the Goddess. Some remains of stone temple are seen near the waterfall.

Mahamrityunjay is another temple located in Nagaon district. This temple is special in its architectural sense as it is built in for, a shivlinga in the month of February 2021 and its height is 126 feet. Visit to both these historical places provide lots of pleasure and knowledge.
