7. Report of the activity / Detail Description of the event:

The Department of History of Nalbari College has organized a lecture entitled ‘Entrepreneurship Opportunities and Challenges in Food processing Sector in Assam’ on 26th of September, 2023. Mr. Karuna Barman, a young local entrepreneur and the proprietor of the Laxmi Foods Private Limited, Tihu was invited as the speaker of the day. Mr. Barman first shared his experiences as an entrepreneur in the food processing sector, then elucidated tremendous possibilities in this sector. Innovation, discipline, risk bearing capacity, perseverance and honesty are the key characteristic features of an entrepreneur. He added that the food processing sector in Assam has high opportunities for economic growth, job creation, and value addition to agricultural produce. However, it also faces challenges like inadequate infrastructure, lack of adequate cold storage, fragmented supply chains, corrupt machinery etc. He appealed to the students to survey their neighbouring areas for the possibility of aggro-based entrepreneurship. The programme was concluded by vote of thanks offered by Sachindra Kr. Kalita, Assistant Professor, Department of History.
