9. Description of the event: The Department of Philosophy gathers to celebrate World Philosophy Day, an occasion to reflect on the importance of philosophical inquiry and discourse, along with a popular talk on “Wisdom and Understanding.” Dr. Madhuchanda Chaliha Bhuyan, Associate Professor from Handique Girls' College, delivers this talk on the theme of “Wisdom and Understanding.” Drawing from her expertise in the field, she explores the nuanced relationship between these two concepts and their significance in navigating life's complexities. Attendees actively engage with Dr. Bhuyan's presentation, posing questions and sharing insights as they delve deeper into the philosophical exploration of wisdom and understanding. Following the talk, participants engage in a spirited discussion, reflecting on the ideas presented and exchanging perspectives on the nature of wisdom and its role in fostering deeper understanding of the world and ourselves. The celebration of World Philosophy Day concludes with a renewed appreciation for the profound insights and intellectual stimulation offered by philosophical inquiry. As participants depart, they carry with them a deeper understanding of the importance of wisdom in navigating life's journey.
