7. Description of the event: The Department of Philosophy is organizing an industrial visit at the District Industrial Commercial Centre (DICC), aiming to enlighten students about professional ethics in business. Participants will have the opportunity to observe and analyze ethical practices firsthand, including food packaging and brick production processes. Through guided tours and interactive sessions, students will gain insight into the ethical decision-making involved in various industries. The event seeks to foster a deeper understanding of responsible corporate behavior and its societal implications. By engaging with real-world examples, attendees will develop critical thinking skills necessary for navigating ethical dilemmas in their future careers. Ultimately, the industrial visit serves as a platform for students to explore the intersection of philosophy and business ethics, empowering them to become ethical leaders in their respective fields.
