It is my great pleasure to ~~be~~ present at Nalbari College as Chief Guest. I shared my experience and journey of life with everyone. ~~I~~ I expected myself to become a dancer and an artist^{in life} but professionally I am engaged in the job of lecturer, Community Medicine, Gauhati Medical College, Guwahati.

Being a woman, it is of course a challenge for me as a person who work with the persons from medical background and with the people from cultural background. I really enjoyed the day at this college today on this day, march 8th 2021.

I offer thanks to the principal of Nalbari college and authority for this opportunity.

It was a nice experience to deliver the Annual Chem. Soc. Talk on subject metal ions. I appreciate the students for their pin-deep silence during the talk. HoD & other teachers deserve thanks for excellent organisation of the talk.
I consider it as my proud privilege to be present in this department of a very prestigious college of Assam. Overall, I acquired very good experience of interacting with enthusiastic students. I appreciate the hospitality of all the members of the department. My sincere gratitude to all the involved in the programme. I wish every success of the department in the days to come.
It's indeed a magnanimous experience on an interface with young & vibrant students from the Department of Chemistry. The warmth and the professionalism showcased by faculty members, spearheaded by the honourable principal is a worthy mention. Looking forward for more interactions & interfaces with Nalbari College, in the days to come.		Best wishes
