“Quality Improvement and Quality Sustenance” is the Motto of IQAC

From the Desk of IQAC Co-ordinator

This newsletter is an effort to document and highlight the various academic activities and co-curricular activities undertaken by the institution. The newsletter would certainly give the readers with a fair idea about the various academic and co-curricular activities and achievements of our faculty members and students. I hope the activities of faculty members & students will certainly encourage the other members to work with more actively. The journey ahead is full of challenges. But I hope the hard work, sincerity and passion of all the stakeholders will help our institution to grow and succeed in future.

As an institution, Nalbari College is well aware of its strength and opportunities and at the same time is sincerely concerned of its weakness and threats. The experience collected from its long standing existence is the inventory of strength of the college which empowers the institution to formulate apposite measures to translate the short comings into positive outcomes. Publication of this digital issue of the Newsletter along with a few hard copies is a green approach of our institution. Best wishes to one and all.
